

THE LAB ROOM

Cosmetics for Body & Soul

*Welcome to my world, where the ethereal
and the subtle combine in a harmony of essences that remain in the memory
when we are gone.*

One of the favourite beauty parlours of national and international celebrities and a benchmark of holistic, cosmopolitan beauty in Spain, and a pioneer in introducing new trends into the country.

The Lab Room Beauty Collection is available in Fred Segal of Los Angeles and California, Orlando Pita's Salon in New York and La Beauté in Hong Kong. One of their star products has just been awarded the Editor's Choice Beauty Shortlist Awards prize.

Natalie Portman, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jennifer López, Plácido Domingo and Penélope and Mónica Cruz have put their trust in The Lab Room for their most important events. They have been present at the Golden Globe Awards, exhibiting the "Madrid" and "Spain" across the world.

The Lab Room Beauty Collection, an exclusive cosmetic line, unisex, sophisticated, cosmopolitan and innovative, born as an alternative to massive cosmetics.

The Lab Room Beauty Collection Unites the ancient cosmetic and perfumist tradition of ancestral worlds and submerges us in a journey through the five senses...

Textures, fragrances and sensations are fundamental in the philosophy of this collection. The freshness of the Mediterranean always dreamed envelops us with citrus notes, fig smell, and the orange blossom in the fields... The mystery of Asia is blurred in bursts of ylang-ylang, myrrh and bourbon geranium... and always the aroma of roses, the sensuality of jasmine, the longevity of cedar...
